

SAVE THE DATE

Annual Leaders Retreat
January 5, 2021

Race, Workplace Culture and Leadership

Featured Speakers:

Dr. Ken Hardy

Dr. Ken Hardy is an internationally known Clinical and Organizational Consultant at the Eikenberg Institute for Relationships in NYC, where he also serves as Director. He has provided trauma informed race, equity, and executive leadership trainings and consultations to a wide variety of institutions and organizations throughout the United States and abroad. Dr. Hardy is the co-author of several books, including: Promoting Culturally Sensitive Supervision: Diverse Perspectives and Practical Applications

John Engels

John Engels is founder and president of Leadership Coaching, Inc., a science-based leadership development firm in Western NY. His courses, presentations and coaching demonstrations have influenced leaders across societal sectors, industries and global borders. John is a long-time student and teacher of Bowen Family Systems Theory. He is an invited Scholar for the Smith Family Business Initiative at Cornell University, an advisor for the Bowen Center for the Study of the Family and a faculty member for the Racial Equity and Justice Initiative in his hometown of Rochester, NY.

